Vieques Island, Puerto Rico

Vieques (/viːˈækwɪs/; Spanish pronunciation: [ˈbʝekes], locally: [ˈbʝeke]), in full Isla de Vieques, is an island–municipality of Puerto Rico in the northeastern Caribbean, part of an island grouping sometimes known as the Spanish Virgin Islands. Vieques is part of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico and retains strong influences from 400 years of Spanish presence in the island.

Vieques lies about 8 miles (13 km) east of the Puerto Rican mainland, and measures about 21 miles (34 km) long by 4 miles (6 km) wide. Its most populated barrio is Isabel Segunda (sometimes written "Isabel II"), the administrative center on the northern side of the island. The population of Vieques was 8,250 at the 2020 Census.

The island's name is a Spanish spelling of an American Indian word (likely Taíno) said to mean "small island". It also has the nickname "Isla Nena", usually translated from the Spanish as "Little Girl Island", alluding to its perception as Puerto Rico's little sister. During the colonial period, the British name was "Crab Island".

Language: English and Spanish are both spoken

Currency: $USD (no currency exchange needed). Bringing cash is advisable, as many places are not accepting cards due to a lack of internet. ATMs are available but can be hit or miss.

Check-In

So you've found yourself on Vieques....

You've made it! We know it's been a trip to get here to our favorite little island, but the fun begins now!

Step One - Rinse the dust off, grab a drink and take in the view from the gazebo or in the ocean itself. It's that close!

You're all checked in, you've met our property manager and have the keys in hand!

Step Two - Depending on what time you've checked in, you'll want to hit the closest grocery stores, located in town near the ferry port. Tienda Poquito Morales (blue store in town) or Tienda Amarillo (yellow store) are easy to find - just GPS to Isabel Segunda or one of the shops in town like Buen Provecho and you'll find them!

You'll want to grab essential items ASAP, keep mind we're a small island and stores close earlier than you're used to in the states.

Don't worry, to get you started we've supplied you with:

- Several starter rolls of toilet paper for the bathroom
- Paper towels for the kitchen
- A few cold bottles of water in the fridge
- Dishwasher and laundry detergent pods

The first round is on us! Once you've run out, you'll need to replenish those essential items at the nearby grocery stores (you'll find more information in this guest book on the best local grocery stores).

Contact Information

Have an issue?

Feel free to reach out to our Property Manager via the contact information below.

Check-Out

We're sad to see you go, but hope you'll come back to stay with again in the future!

Step One - Check Out time is 10 AM - if you can, please let our property manager, Justin, know if you'll be leaving sooner. This helps timing on our side.

Step Two -

Before you lock the door please:

- Turn off the AC's
- Turn off all the lights
- Lock all doors behind you
- Make sure the gazebo gate to the beach is shut

Please let us know you enjoyed your stay. Pull up your AirBNB/VRBO app and leave a review during that 15 minute taxi ride to the airport or while you'll waiting for the ferry.

House Rules

We hope you'll treat our home with the same care you would your own (or better) and ask that you follow the house rules. These rules are listed for your safety and the care of our home.

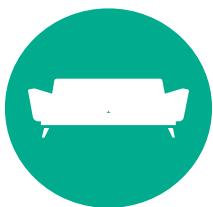

Have a drink or two, relax and enjoy the view!

No smoking in the house!

Please turn off the AC's any time you leave. Keep the ceiling fans on to help circulate air!

We understand the need to rearrange things for catering and parties, but if that's necessary please return all items to their original position when finished.

Please lock up each time you leave the house.

If you've brought small children, please keep an eye on them around the stairs, railing areas and especially around any water. We want your trip to be accident free!

Access to the Island

Puerto Rico Ferry

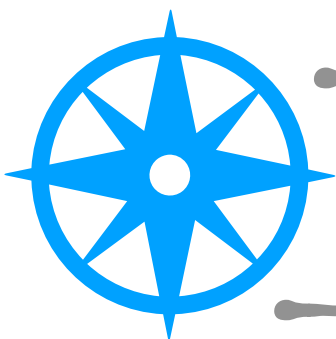

From SJU you have 2 options: You can book a flight with either Cape Air or Vieques Airlink and fly over to Vieques, or you can taxi over to Ceiba and take the ferry. The flight option is easier, but more expensive. If you do wind up taking the ferry, you'll need a taxi or your rental car company to pick you up. Most car rental companies will pick you up at the Vieques airport if you wind up flying in.

To access the ferry, you'll need to taxi or Uber over to Ceiba (about a 40 minute ride from SJU) to get to the ferry port. Once onboard the ferry, it's a short 25-40 minute ride, depending on which ferry is running.

The ferry website is www.puertoricoferry.com.

Vieques has nearly 40 accessible beaches, and while there are many options for transportation on the island like golf carts, 4X4s etc, we highly recommend renting a jeep.

For your convenience we have jeeps available for rental that can be ready upon check-in.

Getting around...

For more information on rental availability and pricing, just reach out to us via text or email.

Making your rental arrangements prior to check-in is best to be sure we have the rental(s) ready for you on time!

Best local sandwich spot on the island, located on the way to the Wildlife Preserve Beaches and Esperanza. Be on the lookout for a food truck parked permanently with a concrete outdoor dining area. Order our favorite, the Cubano.

Lizzy's Lunchbox ($)

Across from El Blok Hotel
In Season (Nov. - Aug.) - Wed. through Sat. 11 - 4 PM
Off Season (Sept. - Oct.) - CLOSED

Island tacos with fresh local charm. Vegetarian and pescaterian friendly, with chicken and beef options as well. Our favorite local spot to grab tacos right off Esperanza Bay beach. Lizzy parks her food truck across from El Blok Hotel in Esperanza all year long, with fluctuating hours/seasonal days of the week for a schedule.

The Beaches

Black Sand Beach (Playa Negra)

Directions to Playa Negra / Black Sand Beach
You can access Playa Negra in two ways.

Option #1 – The Long Way – You can start your walk from Esperanza Beach or Playa Grande, it's a long walk but well worth it and very scenic. On high tide the walk is harder, do at your own risk, there are no lifeguards around so practice common sense. If something does not feel safe to do, then don't do it.

If you decide to make the walk, be sure to wear non-slip beach sandals / shoes. Again, during high tide, you will have to walk your way around rocks and small boulders. During high tide, you'll have to walk on beaches with a rocky bottom, please walk with care and don't make the walk alone in case you need any help. No special hiking skills are necessary, individuals with average physical ability will have no problems getting there.

Option #2 – Easier and Short Route – If you're driving from Esperanza head west on Rt. 996. At the end of the road, make a left towards La Hueca on Rt. 201. Follow the road, watch for Kilometer sign 7.0. Soon you'll get to the sign "Playa Negra". There's enough space for about 2 cars right at the entry. The dirt road leading to Playa Negra is actually a quebrada (stream). During rainy season or when it rains, there may be water on the way and you'll have to walk around the sides, be sure to wear adequate footwear.

Sun Bay Beach

Part of Puerto Rico's national park system, this half-moon-shaped bay, less than a half-mile east of Esperanza, is the island's balneario (public beach), with all the amenities you could hope for, including a cafe serving criollo treats.

Measuring a mile in length, it rarely appears busy – even with 100 people running and playing on it, it will still seem almost deserted. The surf is gentle.

Head to the eastern end for shady parking places amid the palms and few other sunbathers.

For even more solitude, keep heading east on the beach road to Playas Media Luna & Navio. In the evening, kayak companies often begin their tours in the parking lot, taking Sun Bay's dirt roads to access Bahía Mosquito.

The Beaches

Bastimento Beach

Enjoy a peaceful breeze on this clear blue water beach. Located on the northside of the island, you can see clear views of the mainland too! Footwear is recommended at this beach.

Media Luna Beach

With calm and shallow waters, Media Luna Beach is the best place for families. It's a small beach shaped in a half-moon with pure white sand and a sight you don't want to miss.

Navio Beach

If you're looking to surf, Navio Beach has all the playful and big waves you need. In order to reach Navio Beach you must go past the Sun Bay Beach.

Playa Blaydin (Star Fish Beach)

Playa Blaydin Beach is perfect for snorkeling, kayaking, and paddleboarding. Even though it's not your classic sandy beach, it is great to see fish, rays, and starfish.

Playa Caracas (Red Beach)

Ready to take pictures? Picture this, beautiful turquoise waters, breathtaking scenery, and dramatic cliffs, giving you the perfect visual for a backdrop. Playa Caracas also is great for family fun.

Playa La Chiva (Blue Beach)

Playa La Chiva Beach is pure perfection. Perfect for long walks on the beach, snorkeling over clear waters, and profound solitude.

Playa Pata Prieta

Playa Pata Prieta is a small beach cove inside the Vieques National Wildlife Refuge. You'll find no road pavement to this beach; driving 4-wheel drive vehicle is recommended, and the road may be worse when it rains, but it is worth the drive.

Punta Arenas (Green Beach)

Punta Arenas is part of the Vieques National Wildlife Refuge and captures views of the main island of Puerto Rico and El Yunque. If you want a fun adventure, go on a treasure hunt for the tracks under water.

Playa Cofi (Sea Glass Beach)

Playa Cofi is visual paradise. There's so much color on this beach from the blues of the water, the pure white of bubbles touching your feet, to the colorful display of sea glass emerging before your eyes as you walk along the shore.
